

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
WASHINGTON 6, D. C.

3 Paels
2 Va. dailies

NEWS RELEASE

FROM
OFFICE OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

2025 H STREET, N.W.
STERLING 3-0250

MERLE DOWD, BR. 355
JANE LINGO, BR. 420
JOHN TOOMEY, BR. 354

ALSO ST. 3-4995

April 5, 1960

Ambassador Ardeshir Zahedi of Iran will crown the queen of International Night, the annual international students' review at The George Washington University, on April 12, 1960 (Tuesday), at 8:30 PM in the University's Lisner Auditorium, 21st and H Streets, NW.

The queen will be Miss Mitra Shashaani, daughter of the Military and Air Attache of the Embassy of Iran, Brigadier General and Mrs. Akbar Shashaani, and Mrs. Shashaani. Princesses will be Miss Kulanit Arthayukti, daughter of the Ambassador of Thailand, His Excellency Visutr Arthayukti, and Mrs. Arthayukti; and Miss Izette de Souza, daughter of the Assistant Air Attache of the Brazilian Embassy, Colonel Lafayette C.R. de Souza, and Mrs. de Souza. Ambassador Zahedi will place a circlet of flowers in the colors of Iran, green, red, and white, on the head of Queen Mitra following the review of musical talent presented by the international students at the University, and the Parade of Nations, a parade of girls in their national dress.

International Night is presented by the International Students' Society at the University. The musical portion of the program will consist of a series of songs, dances, instrumental music, vocal selections, by the various foreign students. Mr. Edward Ferero, Managing Director of University Dramatics, will act as Master of Ceremonies. Ambassadors of countries who have students at the University have been invited to attend, as well as parents, friends, and members of the diplomatic missions in Washington. The event is free of charge and anyone interested is invited to attend.

MORE

In the Parade of Nations, immediately preceeding the crowning of the queen, will be girls in their national dress from Argentina, Brazil, ~~xChina~~ China, France, Germany, Cambodia, Thailand, Viet-Nam, Old Russia, the Phillippines, Iran, Iraq, the United States, Yugoslavia, Ukrania, Latvia, Poland, and India. All these girls are members of the group of international students at the University.

Vito Tanzi of Italy is President of the I<sup>n</sup>ternational Students' Society at the University. Vice-President is Manoutchehr Ardalan of Iran. Professor <sup>Thomas</sup> Alan ~~Brown~~ Deibert, Adviser to Students from Foreign Countires, is adviser to the group.

-30-

ADD Miss Shashaani was chosen to be queen by a faculty committee.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
WASHINGTON 6, D. C.

3/ads
2 Wa dailies

NEWS RELEASE
FROM
OFFICE OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

2025 H STREET, N.W.
STERLING 3-0250

MERLE DOWD, BR. 355
JANE LINGO, BR. 420
JOHN TOOMEY, BR. 354

ALSO ST. 3-4995

FOR RELEASE SUNDAY, APRIL 24, 1960

George Washington University Engineering Alumni Association Outstanding Senior Awards were presented last night, Saturday, April 23, 1960, at the Annual Engineers Banquet and Ball given by the Engineers' Council of The George Washington University at the Presidential Arms Cotillion Room at 7:30 PM.

In Mechanical Engineering, the Outstanding Senior Award of the Engineering Alumni Association went to John Roberts of 2929 14th Street, N.E.

In Civil Engineering, the award went to Lee Snyder, 116 N. Garfield Street, Arl. 1, Va.

In Electrical Engineering, the award went to A. Ray Howland, 2121 Virginia Ave, NW, Washington 7, DC. In General Engineering, the award went to Richard Lee Potterton, 316 N. Kenmore Street, Arl., Va.

In addition to the Alumni Awards, the Sigma Tau Freshman Award went to Earl C. Flowers, 9704 Montauk Ave., Bethesda, Md. The Institute of Radio Engineers National Award to the outstanding member of the GWU Chapter of I.R.E. went to Leon Sibul, 4514 13th Street, NW, DC. The Institute of Radio Engineers Washington Chapter Award to the outstanding member of the GWU I.R.E. Chapter went to Richard Lee Potterton, 316 N. Kenmore St, Arl. Va. The American Institute of Electrical Engineers Washington Chapter Award ~~was made~~ to the outstanding member of the GWU CHAPTER OF A.I.E.E. went to David T. Lokerson, 7608 Curtis Street, Chevy Chase Md.

Al Graps of 7826 Lakewood Drive, Falls Church, received first prize for an electrical engineering paper from the GWU Chapter of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers. Dirse Sallet of 4916 14th Street, DC, received first prize from the GWU Chapter of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers for a paper on a mechanical engineering topic.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
WASHINGTON 6, D. C.

3 locals
2 Vadaities

NEWS RELEASE

FROM
OFFICE OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

2025 H STREET, N.W.

STERLING 3-0250

MERLE DOWD, BR. 355

JANE LINGO, BR. 420

JOHN TOOMEY, BR. 354

ALSO ST. 3-4995

FOR RELEASE TUESDAY, APRIL 26, 1960

The Annual Parade and Review of The George Washington University Air Force ROTC Cadet Group will take place tomorrow, Wednesday, April 27, 1960, from 1:00 to 2:00 P.M. at West Potomac Park. The United States Air Force Drum and Bugle Corps will play special music and go through a special drill performance. The Pershing Rifle Unit, the crack drill team of the ROTC Group at the University, will also perform. 22 awards will be presented. The entire cadet corps will pass in review before Dr. John F. Latimer, Associate Dean of Faculties of The George Washington University and Lt. Col. Edward M. Wall, USAF, Director of the University's Division of Air Science.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
WASHINGTON 6, D. C.

3 locals
2 Cadet/jes

NEWS RELEASE

FROM
OFFICE OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

2025 H STREET, N.W.
STERLING 3-0250

MERLE DOWD, BR. 355
JANE LINGO, BR. 420
JOHN TOOMEY, BR. 354

ALSO ST. 3-4995

FOR RELEASE THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 1960

43 cadets, members of the Air Force ROTC Cadet Group at The George Washington University including two women members of the group, yesterday, Wednesday, April 27, 1960, received recognition for their demonstrated leadership ability and academic achievements, at the Annual Parade and Review of the AFROTC Cadet Group at the University, held from 1:00 to 2:00 Pm at West Potomac Park.

The Air Force Association Silver ROTC Medal went to Cadet Colonel Carl Scrivener, 1824 19th Street, N.W., Washington 6, DC. The award is presented to the outstanding cadet from among those who intend to apply for flight training upon graduation and receiving their commissions.

The cup awarded to the outstanding basic cadet went to Cadet Technical Sergeant Gary T. McIlroy, 3113 N. Kensington Street, Arl. 7, Va.

Washington Military Representative of The Chicago Tribune, Mr. Philip Dodd, presented the Chicago Tribune ROTC Gold Medal to Cadet Major Laura B. Frehse, ~~3315~~ 3315 Nichols Avenue, SE, Washington 20, DC. Mr. Dodd presented the Chicago Tribune ROTC Silver Medal to Airman First Class Lawrence M. Denison Jr., 1824 19th Street, NW, Washington 6, DC.

The three Reserve Officers' Association ROTC Medals were presented by Captain Edward Padelford, Jr. Representative, Reserve Officers Association. The Gold Medal of the Reserve Officers' Association went to Cadet First Lieutenant Frederick J. Gauvreau, 4901 Chevy Chase Blvd, Chevy Chase 15, Md. ~~REPRESENTATIVE~~

MORE

The Silver Medal of the Association went to Cadet Staff Sergeant Richard E. Oden, 1914 G Street, NW, Washington 6, DC. The Bronze Medal was won by Cadet Airman Second Class Lawrence W. Hall, Jr, 405 Valley Brook Drive, Falls Church, Va.

The President's Medallion, annually awarded to the most outstanding member of the Angel Flight, the women's auxiliary of the ROTC Cadet Group, went to Cadette First Lieutenant Beverly K. Magee, 2033 N. Brandywine Street, Arl. 7, Va. The award, presented by Dr. Virginia Kirkbride, Director of Activities for Women at the University, was established by the President Emeritus Dr. Cloyd H. Marvin.

The Sons of the American Revolution ROTC Medal, given by the District of Columbia Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, went to Cadet Airman Second Class Alphous H. Foreman, of 209 Enderby Drive, Alex, Va.

The Unit Leadership Trophy was won by the Angel Flight for attaining the highest score in competitive review and inspection with the other units of the George Washington AFROTC Cadet Group.

The Convair Cadet Award was presented by Mr. Edward J. La Pevre of the CONVAIR Washington Office, to Cadet Airman First Class John A. Parker, of 5801 Potomac Avenue, NW, Washington DC.

The Colonial Cadet Rifle Trophy, awarded annually to the outstanding member of the AFROTC Rifle Team, was won by Cadet Airman First Class John A. Parker, Jr., 5801 Potomac Avenue, NW, Washington, DC.

Miss Katy Cabell, Queen of the AFROTC Cadet Corps, daughter of General Charles Pierre Cabell, USAF, Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency and Mrs. Cabell, presented the Arnold Air Society Scroll to Cadet Airman First Class Philip Gross, of 2030 F Street, NW, Washington 6, DC.

The Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Award went to Cadet Lt. Colonel Arthur W. Brooks, Jr., of 423 N. Granada Street, Arl. 3, Va.

The three Pershing Rifles Achievement Medals were presented. Winner of the Gold Medal was Cadet First Lieutenant Edgar C. Good, Jr., of 1618 Abington Drive, Alex., Va. Winner of the Silver Medal was Cadet First Lieutenant James D. Fairweather, of 8 Cockrell St. Alex, Va. Winner of the Bronze Medal was Cadet Technical Sergeant Gary T. McIlroy, of 3113 N. Kensington St. Arl. 7, Va.

Reserve Officers' Association Junior Memberships were awarded to 5 cadets on the basis of outstanding academic achievement. The cadets are:

Cadet Captain William H. Ausman, 730 19th Street, NW, Wash, DC

Cadet First Lieutenant Edgar C. Good, Jr., 1618 Abington Drive, Alex, Va.

Cadet First Lieutenant Thor M. Procinsky of 1293 Brentwood Road, NE

Cadet Technical Sergeant Lynn F. Fischer of 730 19th Street, NW

and Cadet Technical Sergeant William Perazich of 5542 Chillum Place, NE.

The National Rifle Association Club Championship Medal went to Cadet Airman Second Class Richard M. Douglas, 1202 Chestnut Avenue, Falls Church, Va.

The Outstanding Element Leader Ribbon went to Cadet Airman First Class Brian J. Baldwin of 9503 Milstead Drive, Bethesda, 14, Md., leader of the First Element, D Flight, Second Squadron. The other six members of Cadet Baldwin's Element each received the outstanding element ribbon.

USAF
Lieutenant Colonel Edward M. Wall, Professor of Air Science and Director Division of Air Science of the University, awarded Basic Cadet Achievement Ribbons to 13 members of the AFROTC Cadet Group.

Lt. Col Wall and Dean Mitchell Dresse, Dean in the Office of the President, The George Washington University, inspected the Cadet Corps before the presentation of awards and the review.